

Open-Ended and Closed-Ended Note Catcher

Open-Ended Questions

Closed-Ended Questions

Definition

Key Words

Examples

Name:

Date:

Question Cards

In what country did the First Industrial Revolution begin?

What factors contributed to the start of the Industrial Revolution in England?

Is climate change that is occurring today caused mostly by human activity?

How does human activity affect climate change?

On what continent was World War II primarily fought?

In what ways did World War II affect different regions of the world?

Did the civil rights movement lead to the end of legal segregation in the United States?

What were the long-term effects of the civil rights movement on American society?

In what year was the Declaration of Independence signed?

How did the ideas expressed in the Declaration of Independence influence the development of democratic principles globally?

Teacher Answer Key

Closed-ended questions:

- In what country did the First Industrial Revolution begin?
 - This question requires a specific factual answer about the location where the First Industrial Revolution began.
- Is climate change that is occurring today caused mostly by human activity?
 - This question asks for a specific answer regarding the cause of climate change.
- On what continent was World War II primarily fought?
 - This question seeks a specific answer about the primary location of World War II.
- Did the civil rights movement lead to the end of legal segregation in the United States?
 - This question asks for a specific answer regarding the outcome of the civil rights movement in relation to segregation.
- In what year was the Declaration of Independence signed?
 - This question has a specific factual answer regarding the date when the Declaration of Independence was signed.

Open-ended questions:

- What factors contributed to the start of the Industrial Revolution in England?
 - This question prompts students to consider various factors contributing to the beginning of the Industrial Revolution in England, allowing for multiple perspectives and interpretations.
- How does human activity affect climate change?
 - This question encourages students to explore and analyze the complex relationship between human activity and climate change, considering various causes and effects.
- In what ways did World War II affect different regions of the world?
 - This question invites students to examine the multifaceted impact of World War II on various regions, cultures, and societies, allowing for diverse responses and discussions.
- What were the long-term effects of the civil rights movement on American society?
 - This question encourages students to analyze and reflect on the enduring consequences of the civil rights movement, fostering critical thinking and discussion about social change.
- How did the ideas expressed in the Declaration of Independence influence the development of democratic principles globally?
 - This question prompts students to explore the global impact of the ideas articulated in the Declaration of Independence, encouraging them to consider historical contexts and the broader implications for democracy.