

Reptile Discussion Cards

Instructions: Distribute the appropriate set of student Reptile Discussion Cards, including the Observation Cards, Picture Cards, and Facts Cards, to each group. Invite students to work together to identify as many traits for their assigned reptile as they can.

Turtle Observation Cards

What colors do you see?

How does it move?

What size is it?

Do you see any scales?

Where does it live?

Does it have a long tail?

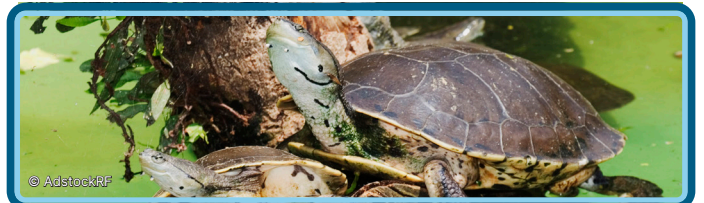

Do you like the way it looks?

Does it have a shell?

What does it eat?

How does it catch food?

Turtle Picture Cards

Turtle Facts Cards

Turtles lay eggs.

Turtles have hard shells.

Most turtles live in the water.

Some turtles live on land.

Turtles do not have teeth.

Some turtles only eat plants.

Turtles can live a long time.

Turtles can swim fast.

Lizard Observation Cards

What colors do you see?

How does it move?

What size is it?

Do you see any scales?

Where does it live?

Does it have a long tail?

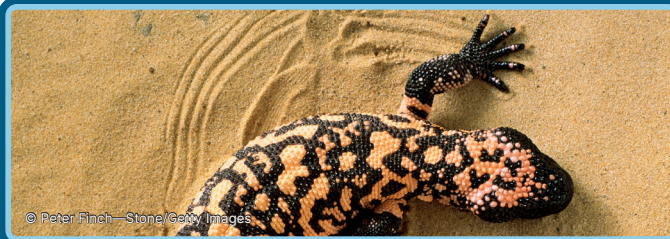

Do you like the way it looks?

Does it have a shell?

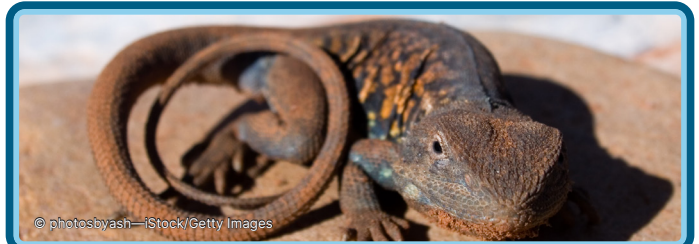

What does it eat?

How does it catch food?

Lizard Picture Cards

© Peter Finch—Stone/Getty Images

© photosbyash—iStock/Getty Images

© Bob Wick/U.S. Bureau of Land Management

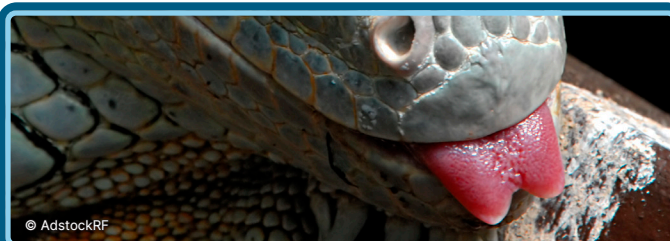

© TamaraS26—iStock/Getty Images

© Rich Holmes

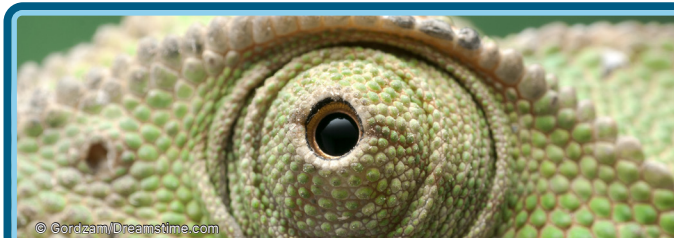

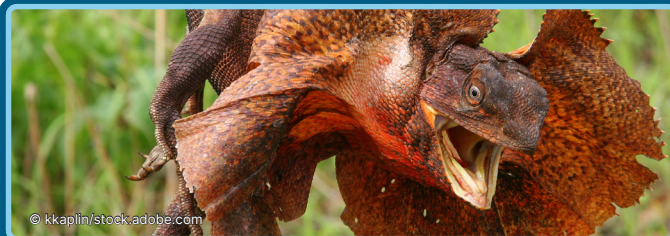

© sylvashippo/stock.adobe.com

© AdstockRF

© Stu Porter/Dreamstime.com

Lizard Facts Cards

Lizards have dry skin.

Lizards have long tails.

Most lizards live in warm, wet places.

Lizards are cold-blooded.

Lizards bask in the sun.

Lizards have FOUR legs.

Some lizards can change colors.

Some lizards can puff themselves up to look bigger.

Snake Observation Cards

What colors do you see?

How does it move?

What size is it?

Do you see any scales?

Where does it live?

Does it have a long tail?

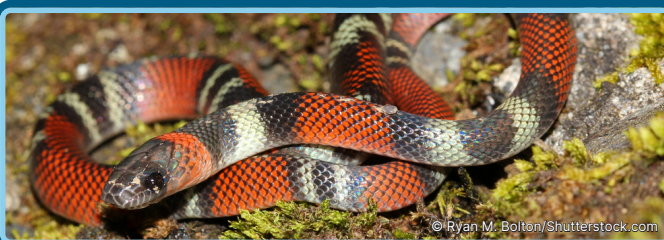

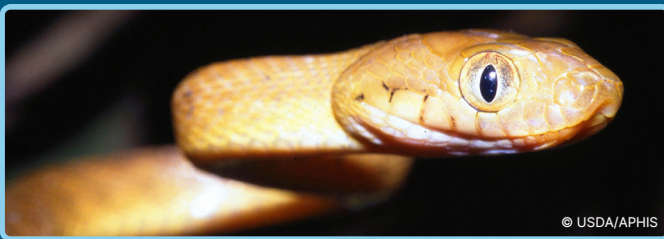

Do you like the way it looks?

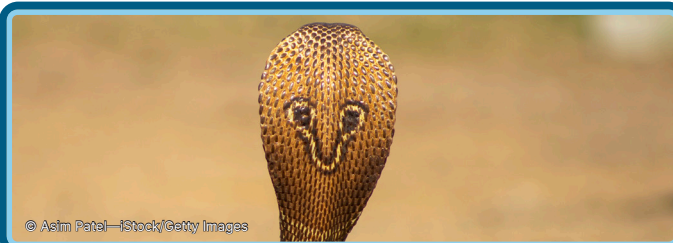

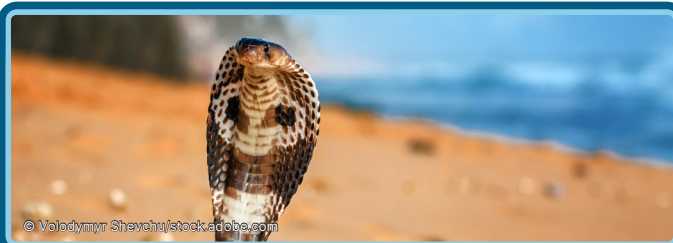

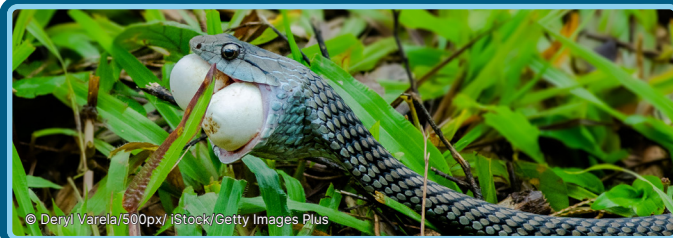

Does it have a shell?

What does it eat?

How does it catch food?

Snake Picture Cards

Snake Facts Cards

Snakes have long bodies.

Snakes have scales.

Snakes have sharp teeth.

Snakes are cold-blooded.

Snakes eat meat.

Snakes swallow their food whole.

Some people keep snakes as pets.

Some people think snakes are scary.

Crocodile Observation Cards

What colors do you see?

How does it move?

What size is it?

Do you see any scales?

Where does it live?

Does it have a long tail?

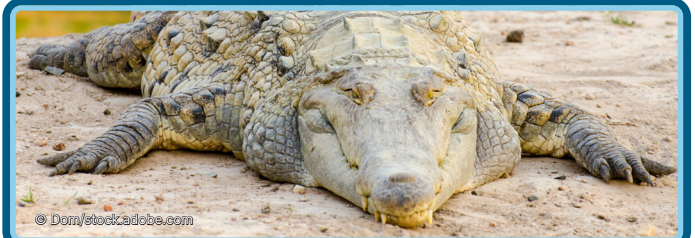

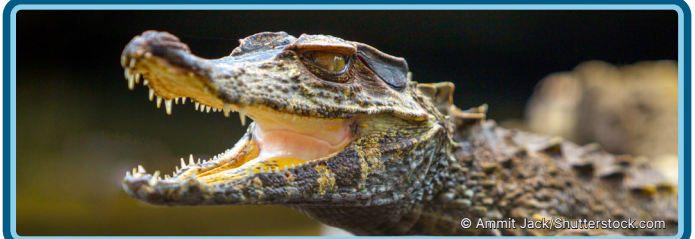

Do you like the way it looks?

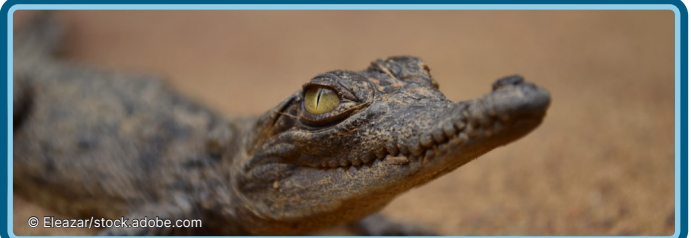

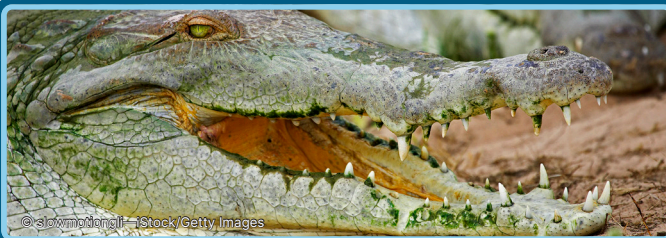

Does it have a shell?

What does it eat?

How does it catch food?

Crocodile Picture Cards

Crocodile Facts Cards

Crocodiles are big reptiles.

Crocodiles live in the water.

Crocodiles have big jaws.

Crocodiles are good swimmers.

Crocodiles eat meat like birds and fish.

Crocodiles have sharp teeth.

Crocodiles live in fresh water and salt water.

Crocodiles have lived on Earth for a long time.